About the San Fernando Valley Symphony Orchestra

The San Fernando Valley Symphony Orchestra has been offering Southern California audiences exceptional performances of classical master works as well as new music compositions for over 30 years. Led by founder-conductor James Domine, the artistic ensemble provides a highly respected showcase for top-notch instrumentalists, vocalists, composers, conductors and music educators. The Orchestra's yearly concert series features symphonic, operatic, and ballet repertoire.

Aside from providing the community with critically acclaimed concerts, the Orchestra is featured in dramatic productions and Broadway musicals. The dedicated musicians also work in collaboration with community service organizations and local business establishments to produce and stage community outreach programs designed for diverse audiences of all ages.

Building upon a strong season ticket subscription base and sold-out performances, the Orchestra's community support impresses civic and corporate leadership alike. The Orchestra is a member of the American Symphony Orchestra League and the Association of California Symphony Orchestras.

This Evening's Soloist Ruth Bruegger

Ruth Bruegger, concertmaster of the San Fernando Valley Symphony Orchestra, is the featured soloist for the December 1, 2012 inaugural performance of the Violin Concerto #1 by James Domine.

Welcome

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to another wonderful evening of music at our second concert of the 2012-13 season. Thanks to the guiding insight, commitment and efforts of our outstanding Maestro Jim Domine, the musicians, members of our board of directors and volunteers we are assured of a season that will continue to delight.

None of what we do could be possible without the commitment and generosity of our Benefactors, Patrons, Affiliates, Contributors and Program Advertisers. On behalf of the board of directors I wish to thank each and every one of you. Orchestras and other artistic institutions across the country have faced a very difficult and challenging environment these last few years. I am pleased to report that because of your generosity our orchestra remains strong, stable, and vibrant. With your continued support the legacy of excellence the San Fernando Valley Symphony Orchestra delivers will enrich our community for many years to come.

I wish to personally thank our premier musicians for their exceptional talent and dedication to rendering wonderful performances year after year. Without you, and the sterling musical direction of Maestro Domine, the superb musical and cultural nourishment we enjoy would not be possible.

As the 2012 year comes to a close, I invite you to visit our website at www.sfvsymphony.com to see how you can help with a year-end tax deductible contribution. In addition, please consider doing some of your holiday shopping through our partnership with Amazon.com. The instructions are located in this program and a portion of your purchase will benefit the Orchestra without any additional expense to you. What an easy way to lend your support. While you're on our website, please enjoy the music from some of our previous performances.

My very best wishes to you and your family this Holiday Season and for a very Happy New Year.

Here's wishing you a Happy and Healthy Holiday Season

Some of you enjoy the hustle and bustle of shopping for gifts for family and friends, while others prefer staying away from crowds and rather shop online.

Whatever your preference, we ask you to consider doing your holiday shopping in an easy way that will also help to support the San Fernando Valley Symphony Orchestra.

The SFVSO has an arrangement with Amazon.com whereby Amazon pays the Orchestra a percentage of the sales that come from purchases made through our website.
